WORD

Placing particular emphasis on no one phase of activities at Louisiana Polytechnic Institute, but rather portraying a general pictorial review of the year's happenings and events, the 1935 edition of the Lagniappe is presented.

TO THE
OF LOUISI

DEDICATION

For admirable cooperation with a far-seeing administration, the 1935 Lagniappe is respectfully dedicated

ATHLETICS

THE CHEERLEADERS

YEA! BULLDOGS;
FIGHT 'EM

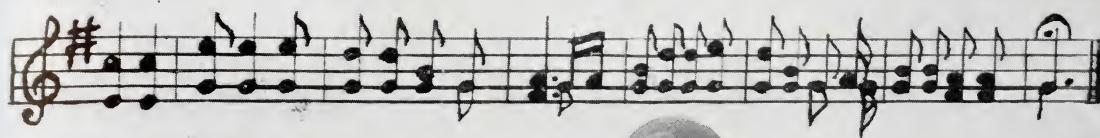

GLORY ON THE

Followers of Louisiana Tech on the gridiron will pin their hopes for an undefeated eleven in 1935 on a score of sophomores up from the frosh ranks and on a mere handful of lettermen left from 1934. Nine games for '35 have been carded by L. P. McLane, director of athletics, six of which will be played in Ruston. The athletic staff announces that the Bulldogs will make a determined bid for S. I. A. A. conference honors this fall before branching out in bigger company. If the Canines are successful in their own circle in 1935, and all indications point in that direction, a series of intersectional contests will be staged in 1936.

1935 SCHEDULE

- October 5—Tennessee Tech at Ruston.
- October 12—Southwestern Louisiana Institute at Ruston.
- October 19—Union University at Ruston.
- October 26—Louisiana State Normal College at Ruston (Homecoming).
- November 1—Millsaps at Jackson, Miss.
- November 9—Mississippi College at Ruston.
- November 16—Mississippi State Teachers College at Ruston.
- November 23—Louisiana College at Pineville.
- December 7—University of Tampa at Tampa, Florida.

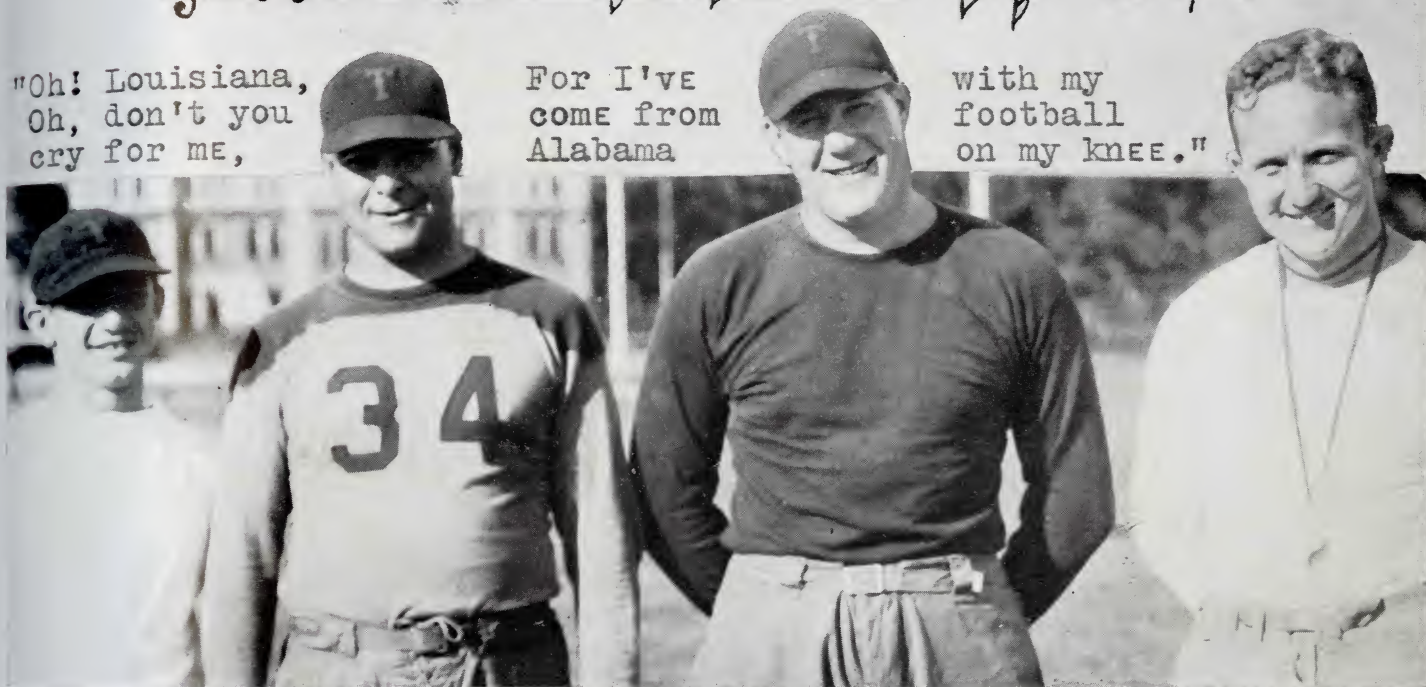

GRIDIRON

"Oh! Louisiana,
Oh, don't you
cry for me,

For I've come from Alabama

with my football on my knee."

RAY DAVIS, Assistant Coach, and MIKE WELLS, Assistant Line Coach.

Failure of the 1933 edition of the Canine Grid Machine to win but one game caused the importation of a quartet of coaches from Howard College, Birmingham, Ala. Paraphrasing the famous, "Oh, Susanna!" ditty, the quartet brought footballs instead of banjos, and the tricky, shifty Notre Dame system of football.

L. P. McLane and his first assistant, Ray Davis, enjoyed unusual success at the Alabama institution in three sports and have been building toward the future with the end in view of putting Tech back in the athletic sun, following a slump of two years.

Eddie Wojecki, trainer, and Mike Wells, line assistant, are enrolled as students and are working without compensation from the athletic department.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

Tutored by Coach George "Blue" Hogg, the freshmen gridders completed the most successful season ever enjoyed by a frosh eleven, or any other eleven for that matter, in the history of the institution. The yearlings of Tech did not allow a single opponent to cross their goal line and they amassed a total of 104 points in five games.

Victories of the Pups were over the Mississippi College frosh, which the Tech team won, 13 to 0; the Junior Gents of Centenary College, 6 to 0; Normal, 46 to 0; the Northeast Center of L. S. U., a junior college, 13 to 0; and over the Louisiana College Kittens, 26 to 0.

George "Blue" Hogg, star of yesteryear at Louisiana Tech, returned to his Alma Mater as freshman coach and in his first year back turned out an undefeated, untied and unscored-on eleven, a feat never accomplished before in the annals of the institution!

SEASON 1934-35

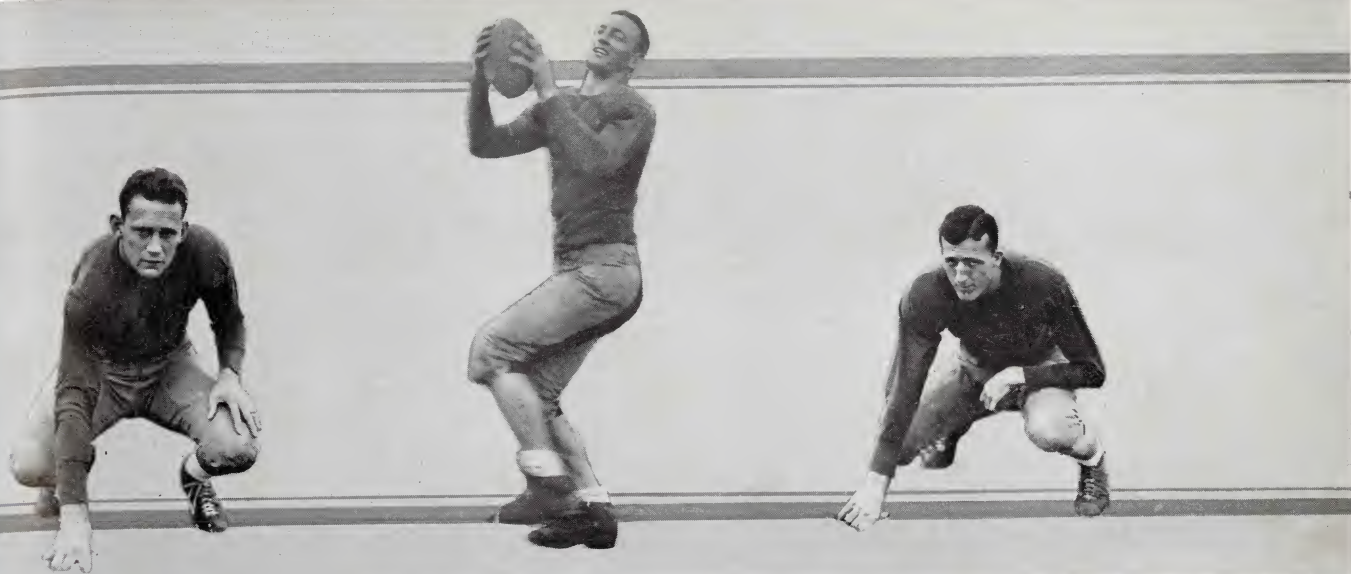

Due to the introduction of a new style of play and to injuries accounting for the loss of several of the key men of the team, the Louisiana Tech football squad was able to win only four of a ten-game "suicide" schedule. Coach L. P. "Eddie" McLane and his assistants, Line-Coach Ray E. Davis, and Freshman Coach George "Blue" Hogg, introduced the Notre Dame shift made famous by the late Knute Rockne.

Before engaging any S. I. A. A. foe in battle the Bulldogs played two junior college elevens and one senior college team. The initial tilt of the season was a home game with the Techmen contesting the Holmes Junior College squad. Led by Marcus Lott and Billy Mitchell, the Tech squad eked out a 7-0 victory, Lott scoring the only touchdown after several brilliant runs by himself and Mitchell had placed the pigskin within scoring distance. Thigpen converted from placement.

Taking on a heavier and more experienced eleven from Magnolia Junior College of Magnolia, Ark., the Techmen were the underdogs before game time but soon established themselves as favorites by successfully stopping the visitors' offense. Brooks, center for the Canines, blocked a punt and raced 20 yards for a touchdown and as in the first game, Thigpen kicked the extra point from placement.

BECKETT, end; WATERS, 1934 alternate captain, end; and PHILLIPS, end.

Journeying to Arkadelphia, Ark., next week, the Tech Bulldogs encountered their stiffest competition of the season and suffered an overwhelming 27-0 defeat at the hands of the Henderson State Teachers College, last year champions of the state of Arkansas.

Southwestern Louisiana Institute took the Techmen into camp in their first associational tilt of the season, 25-0. This was a night contest and the Southwestern eleven was in complete charge of the situation from beginning to end.

Returning home for a game with the Lambuth College squad of Jackson, Tenn., the Techmen went on a scoring spree to humble the invaders, 41 to 0. Lott, Thigpen, Johnson and Cotton all scored touchdowns to lead the Tech offense. Captain Lowrey, Brooks and Ruple, playing tackle, center and guard, respectively, completely smothered any semblance of offense of the visitors.

In their annual "feud" with the Normal Demons, the Bulldogs went to Natchitoches where the Demons squeezed out a 6 to 0 win. The Bulldogs were backed up to their goal posts nearly the entire game and only the determined spirit of the Techmen that "they shall not score" prevented a larger count. Near the end of the game Mitchell received a pass from Lott to sprint to the 15-yard stripe of the Demon's before being halted, the run and pass being good for half the length of the field. The rally of the Techmen was short-lived, however, for they lost the ball on the next play and the Normal backs ran it out of danger just as the game ended.

BROOKS, 1935 captain-elect, center; MITCHELL, halfback; JOHNSON, guard.

In the most sensational game of the season, the Techmen were defeated by the Millsaps Majors, 13-7, but not before the Bulldogs had given the Majors the scare of their lives and had won the admiration of a large Homecoming Day crowd by their gameness. Tech scored early in the game when a long pass, Mitchell to Cotton, was completed with Cotton jogging the remaining distance to the goal unhampered. Following the Tech touchdown the Majors unleashed their scoring attack which consisted mainly of spinner plays through the center of the line. Houston and Wemack accounted for the two Millsaps touchdowns.

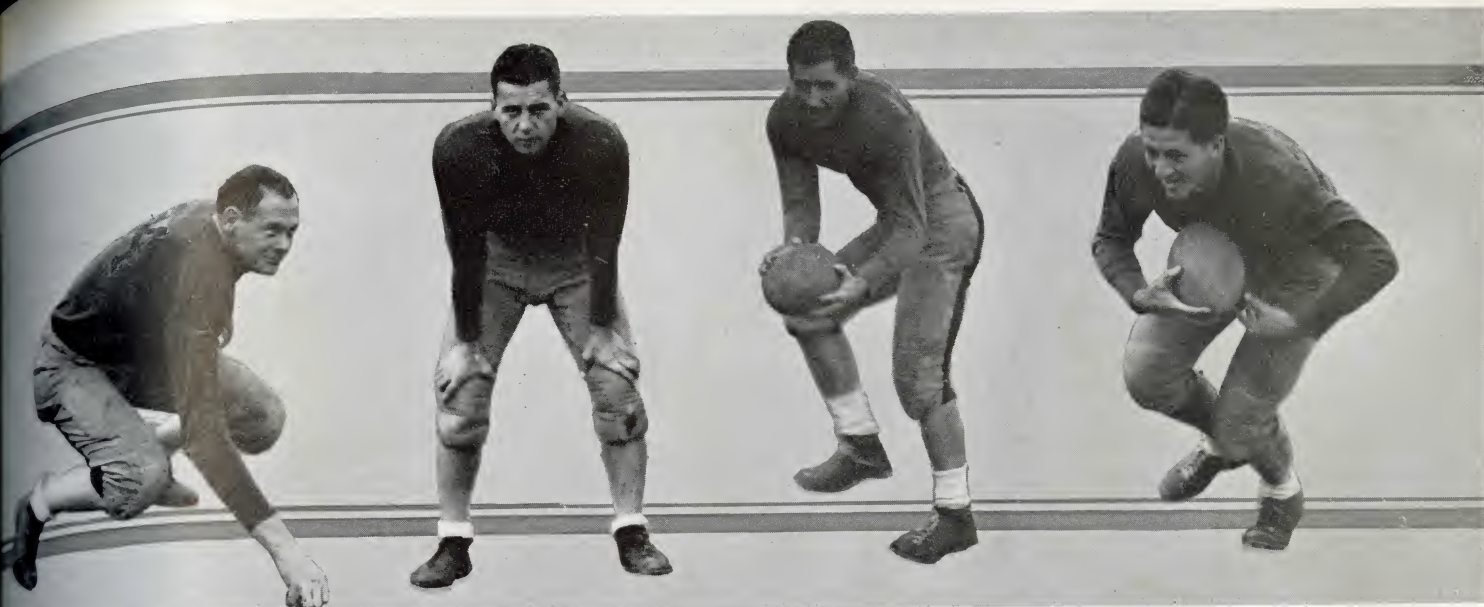

Leaving their lair the next week-end, the Techmen invaded Vicksburg, Miss., where they took on the strong Mississippi College Choctaws. The Choctaws piled up the largest score of the season on the Techmen, winning 32-0. Outweighing and out-smarting the Techmen at every turn, the Mississippians scored at will.

In a distinct upset the Techmen defeated the Delta State Teachers of Cleveland, Miss., 26 to 0, at Ruston. Mitchell, Lott, Waters and Cotton each scored for Tech. Although none of the tries for point after touchdown were successful, Waters accounted for two more points by scoring a safety.

In the final game of the season, the Bulldogs lost to the Wildcats of Louisiana College, 13 to 0. Two lucky breaks for the Wildcats enabled them to start on their touchdown marches, one a blocked punt of Mitchell's and the other, a fumble of Lott's which was recovered by Louisiana College.

THIGPEN'S kick blocked by Millsaps end.

POULAN, tackle; COTTON, halfback; GREER, halfback; TURNER, fullback.

The players—

Captain Ike Lowrey turned in a great performance as tackle in his last year on the football squad and played almost the entire time of every game, justifying his selection by his teammates as their field leader on the gridiron.

Muddy Waters played a consistent game at the terminal position to prove his choice as alternate captain. Although injured a goodly portion of the season, he played in every game and gave a good account of himself.

Henry Poulan staged a come-back following a lay-off from gridiron activities for one year and won a regular berth as tackle for himself. He was a constant threat to his opponents' offense and his loss will be felt next year.

Madison Brooks was chosen captain of the 1935 squad due to his stellar performance as center for the past two years.

Bill Ruple stood out in every game at his guard position and promises bigger and better things in 1935. He was chosen alternate captain for 1935.

Thomas Deas won his second football letter at the guard position and will be back next year to strengthen the eleven.

Fred Beckett, in his first year with the Bulldogs, won for himself a regular berth as end. He will see action this fall.

Bill Mitchell, the lightest letterman on the squad, proved to be a constant ground-gainer for the Bulldogs and always had the defense puzzled due to his versatility at passing, punting and running.

COTTON, after taking pass from Mitchell, on long gallop for touchdown in Homecoming Day contest.

DEAS, guard; LOTT, halfback; DUNNAWAY, tackle.

Marcus Lott, speed merchant, by his spectacular runs has earned a name for himself and is going to earn even greater fame if he overcomes a complex which bothers him at times.

Jack Thigpen, as quarterback, piloted his teammates to a fairly successful season and will play his last year in 1935.

Harry Turner proved to be the type of player that could gain yardage when it was most needed and proved himself invaluable in so doing.

Fred Greer, another half-back, exhibited a type of play that caught the coach's eye and won him a regular position.

W. H. Cotton, a fast, shifty broken-field runner, rapidly developed into a threat to the opponents and will be a marked man in 1935.

Mohawk Phillips at the terminal post proved to be adept at handling the ball and was given a permanent place on the squad.

Alton Dunnaway started the season as a tackle, was later shifted to fullback when injuries accounted for the loss of the available men and was then put back at tackle. He was a player that never let up.

W. C. Johnson at the guard position justified being placed there by turning in a fine performance.

TURNER converts point after touchdown in Major encounter.

Given a bare, outside chance of winning half their conference games this winter, the Canine basketballers proved the "surprise" athletic team at Tech by placing second in the State S. I. A. A. rating and by going to the semi-finals in the annual S. I. A. A. tournament held in Jackson, Miss., early in March. Millsaps of Jackson, Miss., a team previously defeated by the Techmen, eked out a close 31 to 29 decision over the Techmen to go on to the finals and win the championship. The Bulldogs were listed as "dark horses" following their overwhelming 36 to 18 victory over Wofford in the second round.

RESUME OF

'34-'35 CAGE SEASON

When Coach Eddie McLane sounded the call for the cage sport, over 25 candidates reported for equipment. Within two weeks, however, the squad had been cut to 15. During the first two weeks, the fundamentals of the sport were ground into the candidates before actual scrimmage was indulged in.

A new system of basketball, as well as in football, was introduced; the man-to-man defense, and the slow, deliberate offense. This system was a radical departure from years past which style had featured zone defense and a fast-breaking offense.

That the new style of play was taking effect was seen in the first few games with semi-pro quintets. In these first games opponents of the Canines were held to low scores.

The S. I. A. A. title race opened with the Bulldogs in their own kennel acting as hosts to the Louisiana College Wildcats. The Techmen took the season's opener, 30 to 23, and ran their string of undefeated games in conference competition to five before falling victim to their namesakes from Southwestern, 36 to 31 in an overtime contest. Evidently the Southwestern quintet started something for the Techmen dropped the next three games. Centenary won a pair of heart-breakers, 46 to 43, and 38 to 35, and Normal proved to be the fourth team in a row to take the Canines into camp, 44 to 31. With hopes of being invited to the S. I. A. A. tournament virtually blasted after having lost four games in a row, the Techmen redeemed their loss to Normal by defeating the Demons, 44 to 31, the identical score by which they lost to the Natchitoches crew.

After winning their next three starts from Mississippi State, Louisiana College and Millsaps, the Techmen journeyed over to Jackson, Mississippi, and were beaten by the Millsaps Majors in a return tilt.

In the home stretch, the Tech Bulldogs won two from Union University, 41 to 34, and 36 to 27; from Southwestern, 30 to 17, and from Loyola, 37 to 32, dropping the final tilt of the season to Loyola in New Orleans, 30 to 29.

By virtue of winning 13 out of their 19 conference starts, the Techmen were invited to the annual conference title turney and fought their way to the semi-finals.

1934 SEASON

Louisiana Tech's 1934 baseball team became the first athletic team in the college's sport history to visit another section of the country for inter-sectional games. The Bulldogs made an extended trip to Chicago the first of May for two games with the University of Chicago nine, and one with Northwestern. In each game, the Techmen were defeated although giving a good account of themselves.

On the way to Chicago, the Techmen stopped off at Clinton, Mississippi, to administer an overwhelming defeat on the Mississippi College Choctaws in the first of a two-game series, but lost the second game.

In an important series with the Tigers of Louisiana State University, the Techmen won only one game, although holding their stronger foes to close scores in each game.

With the wealth of material that greeted the coaches last spring, it was freely predicted that the team would win the major portion of their games. However, due to having spring football at the same time that baseball was going on, the squad was slow in developing and consequently lost several games.

Back for this year's squad will be the star hurlers, Pittard, Kyle and Taylor. These three twirlers won their letter last spring and can be counted on to win a majority of the games in which they participate in this year.

Other returning lettermen who are expected to figure heavily if Tech is successful are Pankey, Null, Shackelford, Brooks and Thigpen.

It appears now as if the squad will win more games than they lose.

TECH THIN CLADS

1934 SEASON

Loss of key lettermen wrought havoc among Coach E. M. Shirley's thinclads, who for the two previous years had carried off the S. I. A. A. championship cup and for the duration of that time had been undefeated in conference competition.

At the district meet last spring Tech placed fourth with a total of 24 points. Garrett, with firsts in the 100- and 220-yard dashes; Lowrey, with first in the shot-put and second in the discus; Captain Holmes tied for third in the high jump; Garrigus, second in the 220-yard low hurdles; Crawford tied for third in the pole vault and Turner, who won third in the shot put, scored for Tech in the district meet.

For the 1935 squad, hopes for a successful year will be pinned on Lowrey, Garrigus, Turner, Crawford, Neal and Cole.

1934 TRACK RESULTS

Tech $60\frac{1}{2}$ Louisiana College $48\frac{1}{2}$

Tech $60\frac{1}{2}$ Mississippi College $62\frac{1}{2}$

Tech $48\frac{1}{2}$ Southwestern $60\frac{1}{2}$

Tech, 4th place winner in the S. I. A. A. district track and field meet.

BULLDOG DIVOT DIGGERS

Thurmon, Hines, Holland and Bolin

With a foursome composed of Thurmon, Hines, Holland and Bolin, ranked in the order named, the golfing squad will attempt to uphold the brilliant record made last year when an undefeated, untied season was enjoyed. Louisiana State University, Mississippi College, Birmingham-Southern, and Louisiana College, were victims of the Techmen in 1934.

Y. M. C. A.

Faced with prospects of a year's work with a young and inexperienced cabinet, the Y.M.C.A. nevertheless enjoyed a very successful year, due to the initiative, courage, and devotion of the members and officers. An innovation in Tech Y.M.C.A. work was the Freshman Council which was selected by the president and composed of the eight freshmen who showed the greatest promise as "Y" workers. Al Lyons of Shreveport was chosen by this group to be their chairman.

Among the outside speakers brought to the campus by the "Y" were Dr. Theodore Wedel, of New York City; Coleman Jennings, of Washington, D. C.; and Jim Hardwick, traveling representative of the Y.M.C.A.

G N I A P P E . .

Continuing its policy of last year, the Lagniappe was published without the soliciting of advertisements and is believed to be the only large college annual financed solely by the students.

The title "Lagniappe" is characteristic of Louisiana and means "something extra."

Inabnett, Palmer, Chambless, Thompson, and Fincher. Wilder, Sandifer, Robison and Mays.

WHAT THERE ARE ERRORS in this book is conceded. Never has there been a perfect book—one without some typographical errors. If your name has been misspelled, however, don't blame it on the editor. Doubtless it is due to the illegibility of your handwriting on the yearbook register.

For those who have co-operated in editing this book, the editor of the 1935 Lagniappe is deeply grateful and takes this opportunity to express his appreciation to you.
